Celebrating
135 Years
1889 - 2024

St Mark's Church, Mill Cove, is celebrating 135 years this year. Two beautiful winter scenes of St Mark's Church from a different perspective, looking out over St Margaret's Bay. Thanks to Debbie Gass.

Below: Greg and Claire have a weekly Crib series at Two Coves Café. Greg has just been crowned this week's winner. The Café operates every Thursday morning from 9 to 11 and is open to everyone. There is free coffee, tea and muffins and other snacks. Everyone is welcome to come and socialize, play cards or other games or even hold a small meeting. There is also free wifi.

Above & Below: Scenes from Café Church, still going strong the fourth Sunday of every month. (1) Socializing while waiting for the service to begin. (2) Our Winter music team, Donnie and Carol Webb. (3) Licensed Lay Minister Shelly and Rev'd Jerry listen as Wayne, Lyda and Clair lead a discussion of the days Gospel reading.

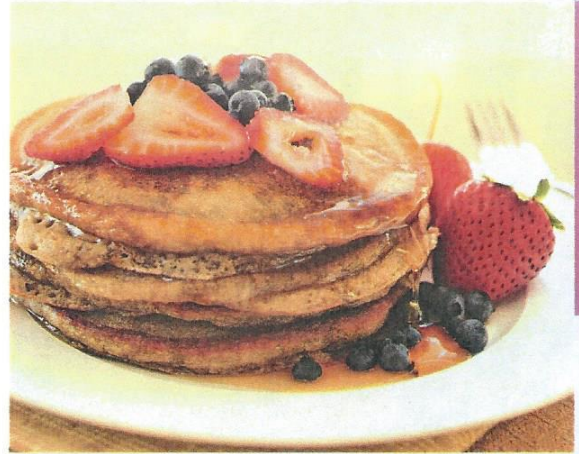

Above & Below: Scenes from the Winterlude Church Luncheon sponsored by St Luke's Outreach Mission Group. A chili lunch was served, with a vegetarian option. There was no charge for the lunch but donations were accepted. Visitors were also able to take in demonstrations by local crafters who had been invited to set up around the hall.

Above: Rev'd Ann Turner blesses the gifts for the Mission to Seafarers while Deacon Jerry looks on. This is an annual project of the parish led by the Outreach Committee.

Right: Joe Young, of St Francis by the Lakes Parish, is very into Anglican prayer beads. He makes them, he talks about them, he gives them away and he uses them in prayer. On Sunday, March 3, Joe joined us for worship. After the service a group of interested folks stayed behind to hear Joe talk about the history and use of Anglican prayer beads. Then he provided materials and coached everyone in making their own sets of beads and in their use for prayer and meditation. In the photo Joe is shown guiding a group of busy beaders.

The Annual Men's Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper was held once again after being interrupted for a couple of years due to COVID. The supper is a joint project of the men of St Luke's Anglican and St Anthony's Roman Catholic churches and is held in the St Anthony's hall. There was still a bit of a hiccup this year. Weather forced a cancellation on Shrove Tuesday so it had to be re-scheduled for a week later. Nevertheless it was enjoyed by many in the community.
